Promoting Sun Safety

Northwood fourth grader Grace Anderson has topped elementary students from across the state to win the Indiana Dermatological Association's Sun Safety Poster contest. The contest highlighted recently passed legislation allowing students to bring sunscreen to school without a doctor's note. State Representative Peggy Mayfield and Indiana Dermatological Association Past President Dr. Carrie Davis stopped by the school to present Grace with her award. In addition to Grace's $100 prize for winning the contest, the school will receive $1000 toward a sun safety project.

The Greatest Show

Vaccination Reminders

Parents of incoming kindergarten, 6th grade and 12th grade students are reminded that vaccinations are needed before the start of school this fall. Families of seniors should be aware that the required Hepatitis A vaccination is a series of two doses taken six months apart. View the Indiana immunization requirements.
