Key Club Salutes Veterans

The MHS Key Club held a Salute to Hometown Heroes Breakfast Friday with a special guest of honor, MHS 1966 Alumnus and Medal of Honor Recipient Sammy L. Davis.

The breakfast drew nearly 100 veterans and guests to hear Davis speak. The Vietnam veteran is more famously known as "The Real Forrest Gump," since his military story was the basis for many of Forrest's military experiences in the book and the movie. Davis' Medal of Honor ceremony footage was used in the movie as well. A monument honoring Davis is located at the Mooreville Veterans Memorial on the Newby campus.
