Pioneers Have Winning Ways

Several Pioneers had a great weekend showing off their athletic skills and bringing home the hardware.

At the IHSAA girls state swimming and diving finals, sophomore Lylah Theriac placed third in the 100 meter backstroke while freshman diver Tatum Humphrey placed 11th in the one meter.

On the same weekend, the MHS Competition Cheer team placed eighth at the National High School Cheerleading Championship in Orlando.

Honoring a Hero

As part of Mooresville's 200th Anniversary Celebration, the community will welcome Medal of Honor recipient and MHS alumnus Sammy Lee Davis to town on Wednesday, Feb. 21.

Davis graduated from MHS in 1966 and enlisted in the Army after high school. He served in Vietnam and earned the Medal of Honor for his heroic actions during a mortar attack. His
