Winning Ways!

Several MHS students and groups have had recent successes in a variety of areas.

After a successful season, the MHS Spell Bowl team has advanced to state finals and will compete Nov. 11 at Purdue University. While MHS has had other academic teams at State, this is their first Spell Bowl team at the finals.

For the third straight year, an MHS student has won the Indiana Art Education Association's Youth Art Month flag design contest. Junior Lucas Shireley's design will be hung at the Indiana Statehouse and will fly to the national art educators convention in Minneapolis in the spring.

The Pioneer football team won Sectionals and has Regionals Friday at New Palestine.

Learn About Free and Low-Cost Career Classes Adult Education Showcase Tuesday

Indiana Senator Pro Tempore Rodric Bray will be honored Tuesday, Nov. 14, as part of a showcase and information fair for Adult Education in Morgan County. Bray has received the Adult Education Legislative Champion award from the national Coalition for Adult Basic Education for his work with the Indiana Legislature to provide funding for adult education programming.

The event will run from 5-7p.m. at the Mooresville Schools Career Center. At 5:30, Senator Bray will be honored and then lead panel of adult education experts and students. Representatives from Ivy Tech and Wayne Township Adult Education (which serves Mooresville) will be on hand to share information about high school equivalency training, college programs offered locally in areas such as welding and Emergency Medical Technician (EMT), healthcare certificate programs, and more. Mooresville Schools representatives will also be on hand to share information about several local job openings, including bus driver jobs with free CDL driver training.

Information will also be available about Indiana's Next Level Jobs program, which provides free Workforce Ready training to eligible Indiana residents in high-need industries, including:

- Advanced Manufacturing
- Building and Construction
- Health and Life Sciences
- Information Technology and Business Services
- Transportation and Logistics

Senator Bray

Experts will be on hand to discuss the program, help with the application process, answer questions about college financial aid, and share qualifying local courses.

The Career Center is located at 173 Indianapolis Rd. Refreshments will be served.
